RADIX DAO · WHAT GOVERNANCE TALKED ABOUT

Radix DAO Weekly

The week in governance, without the scroll-back

WEEK 31 · 27 JUL 2026
27 Jul – 2 Aug 2026
Telegram + RadixTalk

COMMUNITY MOOD · DAY BY DAY — 6/10 · same as last week

Previously: two proposals reached Temperature Check, the social media handover was settled, and vote thresholds were debated in Consultation v2.

A busy governance week: two Temperature Checks passed and were lifted into formal Governance Proposals, and avaunt opened a new non-binding vote on registering Radix in the CAIP registry and the x402 payment standard. The week opened with the first anniversary of Dan Hughes's passing, marked warmly by the community. A sharp personal clash over a Permanent RAC candidacy also surfaced on the forum.

WHAT THE ROOM TALKED ABOUT

Two proposals reach Governance Proposal

Daffy announced that the two Temperature Checks — the revised Stokenet operations proposal and Timan's Webflow-to-Cloudflare website migration — have passed and been lifted to formal Governance Proposals, requiring a second vote on the consultation platform. Daffy confirmed the operations proposal covers back pay for May–December 2026 and began the KYC…

Adding Radix to x402 standard avaunt proposed a non-binding Temperature Check to back registering Radix in the Chain Agnostic (CAIP) namespaces registry and adding Radix as a supported network in the x402 open payment standard, which lets AI agents and services pay each other on-chain over plain HTTP. The vote went live by Saturday; by Sunday it showed strong FOR support but had not yet…

Objections to a RAC candidacy

In Permanent RAC candidacy threads, FoShinto objected strongly to Giles Morris's candidacy, citing personal merchandise Giles sells as evidence of intolerant views that could harm Radix's reputation. Giles responded that the items are gifts for friends and family; the exchange also spilled into the 'Sleepwalking into disaster' thread.

THE BOTTOM LINE

REMEMBER THIS

Both Temperature Checks passed and moved to binding Governance Proposals, while avaunt's x402/CAIP vote went live and needs more participation to reach quorum.

NEXT WEEK

Watch for: the results of the two Governance Proposal votes and whether the x402/CAIP Temperature Check reaches quorum.

More from the room

The week had more conversations than one page could hold.

New Radix homepage brainstorm

foxylady posted a text mock-up for a redesigned minimal Radix homepage, including a short explanation of hyperscale, and invited designers to turn it into a real concept for the community to choose together. She also suggested promoting governance consultations on X, Reddit and other channels, which FarahXRD offered to help with.

From the council & the crowd

What the tracked voices said, and the week's best exchanges.

COUNCIL & INSIDER WATCH

Council member avaunt proposed and opened a non-binding Temperature Check backing Radix's registration in the CAIP namespaces registry and the x402 payment standard, encouraging holders to vote.

avaunt TRANSITION RAC

Opened a Temperature Check on adding Radix to the x402 standard and CAIP registry, arguing agentic AI payments are a real emerging market Radix should be listed in.

Timan COMMUNITY MEMBER

Explained that RDX still holds Dan Hughes's estate XRD in PrimeVault, has fiat for running costs, and is developing new products conceived with Dan to promote Radix without competing with ecosystem projects.

Daffy PROPOSAL AUTHOR

Announced both Temperature Checks passed and were lifted to Governance Proposals, and confirmed the Stokenet operations back pay covers May–December 2026, starting KYC.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

"Is the Stokenet operations proposal about back pay for May–December 2026, rather than a fraction of $4K?"

Daffy confirmed the payment period is May–December 2026 and said a KYC email would be sent later that day.

DEBATE OF THE WEEK — GILES MORRIS'S RAC CANDIDACY

ONE SIDE

FoShinto holds that Giles's personal merchandise expresses intolerant views that would damage Radix's reputation with companies if he joined the council.

THE OTHER

Giles Morris says the items are simply gifts for friends and family and pose no reputational risk.

Still open — expect a rematch.

> — TIMAN

THE PULSE

The mood: Reflective and constructive — a warm remembrance of Dan Hughes opened the week, followed by solid governance progress, though a personal clash over a candidacy added friction.
