The week in governance, without the scroll-back

WEEK 32 · 3 AUG 2026
3–9 Aug 2026
Telegram + RadixTalk

COMMUNITY MOOD · DAY BY DAY — 5/10 · -1 vs last week

Previously: two Temperature Checks were lifted to Governance Proposals, and the x402/CAIP registration vote sat just short of quorum.

A constructive governance week: the x402/CAIP Temperature Check passed quorum, Daffy announced a Constitution Proposal within four weeks, and the community began planning the DAO's treasury runway and operational budget. A new third-party voting platform, OTER XRD Governance, was also unveiled.

WHAT THE ROOM TALKED ABOUT

x402/CAIP registration passes quorum

avaunt announced the Temperature Check on registering Radix in the CAIP registry and the x402 payment standard reached quorum with a FOR majority. He will submit the CAIP Namespaces PR as the first step and thanked everyone who voted in favour.

Constitution Proposal heads-up

Daffy said a new DAO-dedicated Consultation App instance (improved by Timan) will be set up, and within four weeks a Constitution Proposal will run requiring 10% quorum (~1.35 billion XRD) and a 66% YES threshold. Holders keeping treasury in multisigs or unavailable sources were urged to plan for participation.

DAO treasury runway and budget

Giles Morris called for transparency on the DAO's financial runway once the treasury transfers, including backup plans if it is negligible. Daffy agreed and proposed crafting a 6-month operational budget into the DAO Activation Vote so the Permanent RAC doesn't start with a governance proposal.

OTER XRD Governance platform

L unveiled a DAO voting platform where governance results are bonded on-chain claims verifiable by an independent open-source verifier and disputable via a staked jury, preserving the Temperature Check 'Governance Proposal workflow. Release is aimed within the week.

“Has the max supply change from 24B to 18B XRD, part of the stablecoin reserve repurpose, been implemented?”

No — it was never implemented; it was only assumed the community would go that route later.
